Short Title: The Divisive Allocation and Lenient Expenditure per Year-Wallis-Kapitzky Plan (DALEY-Wallis-Kapitzky Plan)

Primary Sponsor: John Daley, CLAS, Organizational Ways & Means Chairman

Secondary Sponsor(s): Tim Wallis, Max Bauer, Nicholle Rentas, Spencer Kwolyk, Jarred Dobbertin, Andrew Poston.

First Reading: October 24, 2013, John Daley

Referred To: Organizational Ways & Means Committee

Passage:

Enacted:

 Whereas; the current caps on Travel Grants are $500.00 per one person; $750.00 per two and $1,000.00 per three people and up;

 Whereas; more groups hit the $1,000.00 per annum cap on Travel Grants under the current caps much faster than they spend Event Grant money;

 Whereas; adjusting the caps per person & per annum would allow groups to help pay down more of their expenses while traveling and place less of a burden on them in otherwise pricey endeavors;

 Whereas; student organizations routinely max out their travel and food caps, yet do not max out the full amount for Event Grants;

 Whereas; an increase in the total percentage a group may withdraw from funds from 7% to 10% has proven math to show that groups would still be able to fund Events at the same price, with more opportunities for food and Travel;

 Whereas; the increased caps would allow for the Organizational Ways & Means Committee to allocate more money to more groups throughout the year;

 Whereas; the increased spending from the Organizational Ways & Means Committee and the Student Body Treasurer to request more money in the one-time allocation fee from the Student Activities & Fees Commission at the end of the year and thus increase the overall budget for the Committee, and thus more money for Student Organizations;
Therefore, be it resolved by the Student Senate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte:

SECTION I: That the current caps of $500.00 per grant per one person, $750.00 per grant per two persons, and $1,000.00 per grant, per three or more persons, per annum, be adjusted to the following:
