Passage:

Enacted:

Whereas, the Elections Act currently states that in order to run for student body president you must have a cumulative GPA of 2.75;

Whereas, the elections act currently states that in order to run for student body vice president you must have a cumulative GPA of 2.75;

Whereas, currently the student body vice president does not need to have any experience within SGA;

Whereas, it would benefit the student senate to have the presiding president be someone who has previously served within SGA.

Therefore, be it resolved by the Student Senate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte:

SECTION 1: By-laws of the Elections Act shall read Section 6-1.9

(a) have a minimum cumulative Grade Point Average of 2.85 or have been apart of student government for three or more semesters, two of which must have been consecutive; and,
THE STUDENT SENATE
OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHARLOTTE

(b) have successfully completed or will successfully complete one year of full-time enrollment at the University by the conclusion of the semester in which elected; and,

(c) have served nine months by the start of a spring general election in SGA; which encompasses the legislative branch, executive branch, judicial branch, or class counsel.

SECTION II: Section 6-1.9

(a) have a minimum cumulative Grade Point Average of 2.85 or have been apart of student government for three or more semesters, two of which must have been consecutive; and,

(b) have successfully completed or will successfully complete one year of full-time enrollment at the University by the conclusion of the semester in which elected; and,

(c) have served nine months by the start of a spring general election in SGA; which encompasses the legislative branch, executive branch, judicial branch, or class counsel.
