Whereas, there is currently no clause within the by-laws of the Student Senate that requires the legislative branch, SGA, or student body to maintain a relationship with the surrounding Charlotte community;

Whereas, the by-laws state that publicity and outreach is responsible for outreach of the Senate to the student body

Whereas, such responsibility is exclusively enumerated to the Publicity and Outreach committee

Whereas, Publicity and Outreach believes the legislative branch should be responsible to participate in scheduled tabling at least twice a session;

Whereas, it is the responsibility of the publicity and outreach committee to facilitate opportunities for the legislative branch to fulfill the aforementioned roles as a student senator;

Therefore, be it resolved by the Student Senate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte:

SECTION I:

§3-3.6. The Publicity and Outreach Committee shall oversee matters pertaining to the outreach of the Senate to the Student Body, and may oversee matters pertaining to the Elections Act. This shall include coordinating with the Board of Elections to publicize Student Body Elections in accordance with the Election Act, informing the Student Body of pertinent changes in the University policy and the general direction of the Student Government Association Website. Publicity and Outreach is responsible for maintaining community relations within and beyond the UNC Charlotte community. The Publicity and Outreach committee will facilitate opportunities for the legislative branch to fulfill as far as outreach is concerned.
