An Act Requesting a Public Speaking Resource Center

Whereas, The University Career Center does not offer workshops primarily focused on working on student public speaking;

Whereas, Students have a great need for public speaking skills;

Whereas, classes demand the ability to have prior public speaking knowledge;

Whereas, public speaking is a vital skill for employment;

Whereas, the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and University of Rhode Island both have a speaking resource center that provides assistance to students on improving their public speaking and oral presentational skills;

Whereas, there is no facility on campus that offers the programs this center would offer;

Whereas, there is a great desire from the student body for the public speaking resource center;

Therefore, be it resolved by the Student Senate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte:

SECTION I: We request a public speaking resource center that allows for students to work on their oral presentational skills and public speaking abilities.

SECTION II: The public speaking center will have orientations, face to face consultations, workshops, and online consultations.

SECTION III: Students will be able to make their own appointments and access these services for free.
